Statement from Houston Housing Authority Board of Commissioners

The Houston Housing Authority (HHA) Board of Commissioners met on November 18, 2024, to discuss amongst other matters, the organization's leadership, including, David A. Northern, Sr.'s leadership tenure. During this meeting, the Board Chairman disclosed that Mr. Northern has chosen to resign from his position of President and CEO, effective immediately.

HHA recognizes the importance of strong leadership, especially during a time of change. So, as HHA moves forward, Jennine Hovell-Cox will remain Interim President and CEO until final deliberations can be made on a permanent replacement for the position. This will ensure a smooth transition and continued focus on serving the residents of Houston.

HHA will remain dedicated to fulfilling its mission of providing safe and affordable housing and services for Houstonians in need.
