Houston Housing Authority Responses to Past Allegations Mentioned at December Board of Commissioners Meeting

December 18, 2024 – The Houston Housing Authority (HHA) is one of our nation's most prominent housing authorities, providing affordable homes and services to more than 87,000 Houstonians. Additionally, HHA administers one of the nation's largest voucher programs exclusively serving homeless veterans. In addition to investing more than $250 million in providing safe, affordable homes to Houstonians, HHA also offers a host of programs to help our residents, citizens, and voucher holders increase their education, live healthier lives, and reach their economic goals. HHA creates hundreds of millions of dollars in local economic impact by partnering with Houston area contractors and small business owners to provide critical services that assist us in doing our important work.

As a committed servant of the community, HHA prioritizes transparency and accountability. This commitment includes addressing community concerns with clarity and factual information. In this spirit, HHA seeks to address the allegations raised by Mr. Kevin Calvin, a former HHA contractor whose agreement with HHA was terminated for cause. Mr. Calvin once again voiced his allegations during public comments at the HHA Board meeting on December 17, 2024.

HHA previously issued a statement addressing Mr. Calvin's claims, which can be viewed here. To ensure integrity and transparency, the HHA Board of Commissioners initiated a third-party investigation into the allegations raised by Mr. Calvin, which at this time is still ongoing.

HHA takes its role as a steward of safe, clean and affordable housing to Houston families very seriously. HHA remains committed to its work and looks forward to continuing to serve our community.
