Houston Housing Authority Responds to Shooting Incident at Oxford Place

January 28, 2025 – The Houston Housing Authority (HHA) has been made aware of a shooting incident that took place at the Oxford Place Community on January 26, 2025. The report stated that the building manager was messaged of gunfire in Building 5, Unit 506. The manager immediately responded and urged the resident to take safety, which they did at an off-site location.

Upon inspection, the building manager discovered approximately 10 bullet holes in walls and windows, as well as a physical bullet located in a resident’s bed. Management notified police, who responded to the site. No injuries were reported as a result of this incident.

The safety and security of residents is top priority, and HHA is fully cooperating with the Houston Police Department in its investigation.
